

Housing Policy Summit 2021

Purpose and Approach

October 14, 2021

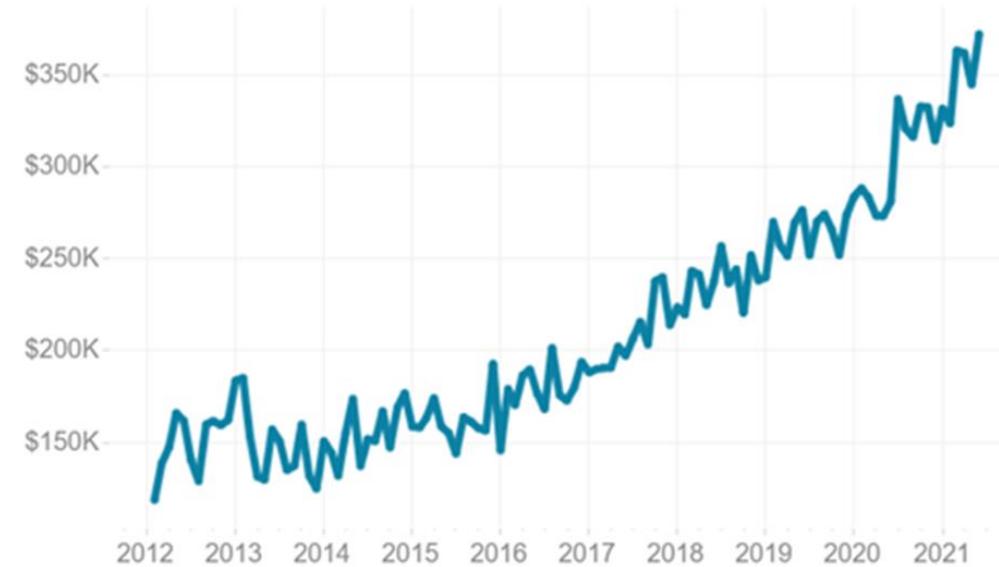

9:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Why we're doing this

- We have a housing crisis in Lewis County
  - Supply extremely low: 1.1 months' supply
  - Homeowner vacancy rate at 1.7, rental at 4.5%
  - 69% decrease in supply from 2012 to 2021
  - 127% increase in median sale prices from 2012 to 2021
- Solutions need to be cross-jurisdictional
  - Policy approaches taken in one jurisdiction impacts others
  - Desire to take a regional approach

Median Sale Price, Lewis County

What we're doing

---

- Convening locally elected leaders across Lewis County
  - Jurisdictions send 1-2 representatives
  - Using safety protocols in response to Covid
- Our purpose is to educate ourselves and have shared knowledge
- We'll cover specific topics
  - Lewis County Housing Situation Assessment
  - The housing pipeline and role of different types of housing
  - The local government housing policy toolkit
- Focus is on educating ourselves on this topic and then understanding our policy toolkit

Our Focus is on the WHOLE Housing Pipeline

Solutions must address needs of people and communities at every level of housing.

THE HOUSING CONTINUUM

Desired outcomes

Local elected officials with a high degree of shared knowledge on the topic

HOUSING POLICY SUMMIT 2021

A convening of elected leaders on housing policy solutions.

SAVE THE DATE!
October 14, 2021

Challenges related to housing exist across Lewis County. The City of Centralia and Lewis County government are sponsoring a housing summit to help local elected leaders develop a shared understanding of the current situation and the available policy solutions. We plan to look at housing challenges collectively so that jurisdictions set policies that address housing needs across the county and share both the opportunities and responsibilities for ensuring a strong housing pipeline in our area.

Convened by the City of Centralia and Lewis County.
